City of Kitakyushu Board of Education

I The principles of Himawari Junior High School

We value creating a school where students enjoy learning and want to continue learning.

We value creating a school where students can have a variety of experiences with classmates.

2 People eligible for enrollment (application requirements)

- People who did not finish compulsory education for a variety of reasons
- People who want to return to school for reasons such as not attending school
- Non-Japanese who were unable to receive sufficient compulsory education in Japan or their home country

※People born before April 1, 2009

3 Number of applicants being accepted

- We anticipate accepting around 30 applicants. There is no maximum allowance.
- If there are many applicants, there may be a waiting period while classrooms are prepared.

4 How do students study?

- Students study all subjects (9 subjects) learned in junior high school.
  - ※Students can also study elementary school curriculum by request.
- Classes are held every day from Monday through Friday.
- 4 class periods are held at night, rather than during the day.
- Help with the Japanese language is also provided to non-Japanese and others when needed.

5 Commuting

- Please commute to school either on foot, by bicycle, or public transportation (JR, monorail, bus).
  - ※Students can buy a student commuter pass for commuting to school.
- As a rule, students are not allowed to drive a car or motorcycle to school.
  - ※Persons requiring a wheelchair, etc. should consult with the Board of Education.

6 Others

- People who work during the day can also enroll.
- Students are free to dress as they like while in school. (There is no school uniform.)
- There are no tuition fees and textbooks are provided for free.
- There is no school meal.
- Some fees will be required as learning progresses (study materials, practical exercise fees, etc.).
- There are summer, winter, and spring breaks.
